

THE LABOR TROUBLES

Wholesale Arrests of Anarchists at Coal Creek, Tenn.

A SYMPATHIZER ROUGHLY HANDLED.

Will Return the Convicts to Work--Smooth Running in Buffalo Elevators--Filling Up with New and Competent Men.

Wholesale Arrests--Other Men Wanted.

KNOXVILLE, Tenn., Aug. 23.--Twenty-three men, supposed to be in sympathy with notorious miners, were arrested near Coal Creek yesterday and locked up. Several of the members are suspected of holding up a mail train between Clinton and Coal Creek last Thursday night. One of the suspects is Jim Hatmaker, son of John Hatmaker, who led the attack on the stockade at Oliver Springs last Tuesday. Every possible attempt is being made to apprehend the elder Hatmaker. He was of the greatest prominence in all the mining troubles, and is supposed to have escaped to Kentucky.

Another man who is wanted is L. A. Roescher, a German, who for the past year has conducted a shooting gallery on the creek. He is a practiced sharpshooter, and last week went to a high point overlooking Fort Anderson and erected a small barricade. From behind this he kept up a constant fire, and it is believed that he killed Private Smith. Proof sufficient to show that he is an anarchist of pronounced views has been discovered. He has been very active among the miners since his arrival at Coal Creek. All the leaders prominent in the labor troubles of the past eighteen months, save Lindsay, are absent from Coal Creek on what will prove to be an extended vacation, and the deluded miners and citizens who were led into open rebellion against the state are left to suffer all the penalties.

George Irish, well known in Coal Creek, who has been recognized as the leader and advisor of the miners, was arrested at Lyon's View by Deputy Sheriff Hall, the arrest having been made in accordance with orders from Gen. Carnes. He was taken to Coal Creek last evening by Quartermaster Walsh of the third regiment.

Charles T. Alkman, assistant mine inspector for the state, is wanted at Coal Creek by the military officers. He is charged with having acted in concert with the miners for months and has aided Labor Commissioner Ford in keeping the miners posted in all the movements of the state military forces and the civil authorities. Alkman went to Coal Creek last Thursday, but has not been seen there since early that afternoon.

Commissioner Ford gave bond yesterday in the sum of $10,000. He was released by Gen. Carnes and is now at his residence in this city.

A Lively Night Causes the Ringing of the Riot Alarm.

KNOXVILLE, Aug. 23.--The riot alarm was rung again in Knoxville to-day. Joseph Goodman, proprietor of a boarding-house on Hardee street, where the miners make their headquarters, and Capt. W. L. Ledgerwood, captain of one of the companies of the Knoxville volunteers in the Coal Creek war, met at the post office about noon and started to discuss the situation. Goodman roundly abused the citizens who had gone to the front, and this incensed Ledgerwood, who retaliated in kind. Col. Ledgerwood seeing Goodman was about to strike, hit him, and was in turn hit with a stick. A fight followed, in which both men fought fiercely, but neither was dangerously hurt before being separated.

The news of the fight spread rapidly, and before Goodman had reached Gay street several of the Knoxville volunteers were manly chasing him. They thought Goodman was going back to his boarding house to report to some mines who were stopping there. James Harris was at the head of the running crowd with a gun. They caught Goodman at the corner of Gay and Vine streets and soon had him escorted by policemen to the city hall. The riot alarm had been sounded in the meantime.

Col. Ledgerwood made the following statement: "I met Mr. Goodman, and he began by saying that he had entertained the captain and three of his men who hid the shooting at the Hardee county boys on the mountains. I remarked that I would not have expected that of him. He said yes, that he had intended to go to the front and join the rebels, and that he intended to go. He said that he had been arrested, and that there was a charge against him. I said that I would not have expected that of him. He said yes, that he had intended to go to the front and join the rebels, and that he intended to go. He said that he had been arrested, and that there was a charge against him."

Western New York and Pennsylvania South Bound on Strikes. Buffalo, N. Y., Aug. 23.--The union switchmen of the Western New York and Pennsylvania road went out on strike yesterday afternoon. Forty-five switchmen were employed in the Louisiana. Buffalo and Erie street yards of the road. A week ago, when the Central, Lake Shore, West Shore, Erie and Lehigh Valley switchmen went out, they made a demand for more wages. Yesterday the New York Central sent over a long string of freight cars loaded with hard coal. The New York and Pennsylvania men refused to handle it. They visited General Superintendent Bell and Division Superintendent C. Dabney and told them briefly and firmly they would go out if the road insisted upon making them handle freight from roads whose men were out. Bell and Dabney reasoned with them that they must receive New York Central freight, and asked if the road had not done enough when it granted their demands a week ago. The answer was negative. The men then struck and left the yards. It is not probable that the road will grant the new demands of its employees, and it is understood that their places will be filled with nonunion men from the west.

The big yards are deserted except by the troops. The tenth battalion, of Albany, the forty-sixth separate company, from Amsterdam, and the twenty-first, from Troy, are on duty in the Western New York & Pennsylvania yards. There are rumors of the Lackawanna men going out, but the crews are still at work.

The latest fight took place between James Hickey, a grain scooper, and a member of Company C. Hickey insisted upon going through the lines and the sentinel probed him with his musket. Hickey picked up a bar of iron and attempted to knock the soldier down. Hickey was promptly arrested.

Several young men were arrested last night for throwing stones at the soldiers.

Smooth Running at the Central Elevators. BUFFALO, N. Y., Aug. 23.--Everything is running smoothly at the Central elevators, the only interruption being caused by the breaking of some car-hauling machinery. In all 800,000 to 850,000 bushels have been taken out and sent on its way east during the past twenty-four hours. The Erie is doing well and the Niagara houses have been able to take quite a fair amount this morning.

There is a large quantity of grain in store here. In addition to the large fleet of vessels that are lying in the harbor--from thirty to forty--the amount of grain figures up over 8,000,000 bushels.

The Lehigh Valley company have several crews at work to-day, and the tracks on Tift farm are being cleared up. Work in the Lehigh Valley flour houses is going on, although some delay is experienced in getting empty cars. The Lake Shore has three engines at work and is doing considerable work, but the nonunion men do not seem able to handle the freight as fast as it comes in.

Filling Up with New and Competent Men.

PHILADELPHIA, Aug. 23.--Since the strike of the iron workers employed by Hughes & Patterson in this city the firm has been confining the work of the new men to its Delaware mills, but yesterday morning twenty additional men were put to work in the Robbins mill. They were accompanied to the plant by police officers. The new men will be granted police protection while going to and returning from work. The firm is daily hiring competent men, and expects in the course of this week to operate the mills at their fullest capacity.

A Matter of Speculation.

BUFFALO, N. Y., Aug. 23.--Just when the troops are to be ordered home is a matter of speculation. Gen. Porter says he will not order them home until he is satisfied they are no longer needed. Sheriff Beck thinks it is safe to withdraw some of them now. From all he can see and learn he thinks the backbone of the trouble is broken. Mayor Bishop thinks differently.

Struck for Ten Hours.

EAU CLAIRE, Wis., Aug. 23.--A thousand sawmill employees working in the mills of five companies which run eleven hours a day, struck yesterday for ten hours and eleven hours' pay. At the same time they sent committees to the mill owners with a petition. No reply has been returned by the mill owners.

Will Return the Convicts to Work.

NASHVILLE, Tenn., Aug. 23.--The prison inspectors and the lessees had a conference yesterday concerning the convicts, and it is given out that the lessees will rebuild the stockades at Inman City, Oliver Springs and Tracy, and return the convicts to those places under heavy guard.

Alkman Will Surrender.

NASHVILLE, Tenn., Aug. 23.--Charles T. Alkman, assistant commissioner of labor and mine inspector, was here to-day, and declared that if he is wanted at Coal Creek he will return.

TUESDAY EVE. AUG 23, 1892

The indications are that a large vote will be polled at the primaries to day

The chances are that the vote at the primaries throughout the county, held to-day between the hours of 3 and 7 o'clock, will in every case determine who the Republican nominees will be for representative and for the county offices

Every socialist and every anarchist in the state is for Altgeld for governor They are for him because they believe he is in sympathy with them For this reason law abiding people and especially farmers will think twice before they vote for him simply to satisfy a partisan prejudice

Every laboringman who through the sophistries of political demagogues has been led to believe that he can open the way to prosperity for himself by opening the American ports to foreign goods, in the manufacture of which he now finds employment for himself, ought to vote the Democratic ticket

WASHINGTON, Hamilton, Madison, Monroe, Jefferson and Jackson, all argued the constitutionality of and the necessity for a protective tariff. The modern Democracy, however, have discovered that protection is unconstitutional The same Democracy in 1864 discovered that the war was a failure

How much have the 3800 men formerly employed in the Homestead mills been benefitted by following the advice of demagogues who induced them to refuse to work because 325 of those receiving the highest wages were dissatisfied? It is time to ask who was the friend of the laboringman? The demagogue who poured falsehoods into his ear, or those who gave them good advice?

ENGLAND wants to manufacture goods for this market which American laboring-men are now manufacturing The Democratic party wants to give England a chance to do this and to open the way for England it has declared protection, which checks the importation of English made goods, unconstitutional and declares in favor of free trade This is the reason why the English capitalists and the English press unanimously favor the election of Cleveland The laboringman who votes for Cleveland will be doing precisely what England would be glad to pay him to do

I HAVE noticed in my own business life, extending over a period of seventy years, that every reduction of the tariff (or the tariff for revenue only plan) has brought wretchedness and ruin It is the natural effect from such a cause Nothing is more certain than that the advocacy of free trade comes from the signers who want to break up our industries They have done it several times already and they want to do it again — Peter Cooper

Nothing is more certain than that a free trade or revenue tariff which opens our market to foreign goods which we could make for ourselves, must bring wretchedness to laboringmen and ruin to business, yet modern demagogues are now telling laboringmen that free trade will bring prosperity to them, and the business man that he can make more money

The entire difference in the cost of making iron here and in England is the wages — Liberty's Herald, 1882

Every iron manufacturer who appeared before the committee on ways and means when it was formulating the Mc-Kinley tariff bill said the same thing If this is true and the tariff is removed by the free trade Democrats, should they get into power, what would become of the difference in wages? When the free-trade tariff of 1846 was enacted the result was that wages were reduced, and at the end of the first year we produced only 900,000 tons of iron, and after four teen years of free trade tariff we were producing only 800,000 tons of iron a year, and wages had been reduced one half At the end of 32 years of protection we are producing 9,000,000 tons of iron each year and wages have doubled

The McKinley tariff law, abolishes the Democratic demagogue, is responsible for the strikes in this country The same law may have caused the labor troubles spoken of by the Liverpool, England, Morning in that country The one is as likely to be true as the other The Morning says

The recent disastrous strikes in the north of England have made a vivid impression on the pauper returns for April just issued There is a slight increase on totalists compared with April of last year, but the report states that had it not been for the distress occasioned by the strike of Durham coal miners which subsequently affected the workers in iron and steel in the North Riding of Yorkshire, the decrease of pauperism which has been noted for many years past, would have gone on unchecked As an example of the effect of the strike, the Darlington and Stockton miners are quoted The number of adult able bodied persons receiving out-door relief increased during the month from 142 and 195 to 532 and 1,987 respectively, and the number of children of out-door poor from 429 and 545 to 699 and 2,475 In Middleborough, the distress was still more keen From 604 able bodied adults relieved, the number sprang up to 5,709, and the children rose from 1,231 to 7,996 This is the most appalling evidence which the returns of pauperism for a long time past have shown

Democratic Love for Laborers.
Every laboringman who is at all affected by the hypocritical outcry now being made by Democratic demagogues to secure the vote of laboringmen, should read the following

To the Editor of the Streator "Daily Free Press" Some time ago I read an article signed by a miner commenting on Mr Stevenson, Democratic nominee for vice president It brought to mind an event of nearly twenty years ago, and it seems the honorable gentleman has not changed, nor has he repented for the cruel wrongs he inflicted upon his miners and workingmen at that time I worked for his company from the time the bottom vein was reached in 1870 until Adlai pulled the union out root and branch in 1873 I can truly say that I never met a greater tyrant, nor a man with less humanity during all my life as a coal miner In 1873 a contract was agreed to between Adlai and the miners He prepared it, one clause provided that it should remain in force one year, and no one should be discharged without good cause Not many weeks after the contract was agreed to one of the ropes broke in the shaft, leaving but one to hoist and lower the men, and raise the coal At that time the shaft was also in a very dangerous condition The timbers were bulging and breaking, and the free passage of the cage was frequently obstructed One afternoon the remaining cage, loaded with men, stuck in the shaft From 4 o'clock until 10 at night it was suspended in the most perilous position between a top and bottom, while the men below having no other means of escape, became alarmed for their own safety There was no escapement shaft no means of egress, and coming from the bowels of the earth 550 feet below could be heard the execrations of the men and pleadings for prompt relief At any moment the unusual strain upon the rope might have precipitated the cage of human occupants to the bottom of the shaft, several hundred feet below Women and children gathered around the top, screaming and praying for the safety of their husbands and fathers Next morning yielding to the prayers of their families, the men refused to work until the shaft was put in a safe condition Adlai gave orders to discharge every man who did not report for duty Realizing their extreme danger not a man reported, and all were discharged in face of a contract drawn up for one year Adlai would listen to no reason, but said he had done with the union, and would get new men In a short time the company's agent brought in ninety scabs, only one of whom could speak a word of English The union miners called a meeting, and a committee was appointed to wait upon the scabs, acquaint them with the situation, and induce them to return whence they came I was chairman of that committee and was talking with the leading scab, when Adlai and another member of the company approached Justening a moment, he ordered us to leave the premises double-quick, threatening if we did not that he would have us in jail in less than an hour This ended the interview, as the scab could not be seen afterward

Union miners were defeated in that inhuman lockout in 1873 for simply demanding that their lives be not unnece-sarily jeopardized Such is the character of Adlai Stevenson, the scab employer and boss political headman

YOU CAN TAKE COMFORT

In a room that seems not only to invite you to walk in but stay in To have any other kind of a room is worse than absurd when we are selling Easy Chairs and Parlor Goods at such Extremely Low Prices as at present, either for Cash or on Easy Payments. You get part of your money back every time you look round the room. It is perfectly true that there is no place like home, but it is also perfectly true that some homes might be a good deal more cheerful, cozy and comfortable than they are. Bleak and barren enough were the houses of long ago but there is certainly no excuse for that kind of thing now when we offer ou such bargains.
